

PUGH DAY 2013

CELEBRATING William Russ Pugh's
ETHERISATION OF THREE SURGICAL
PATIENTS IN LAUNCESTON ON 7 June 1847
—THE FIRST TIME IN AUSTRALIA

The Launceston Historical Society, The Launceston
General Hospital Historical Committee and Department of Anaesthetics invite you to a lecture commemorating this remarkable event.

WALKING FROM HOBART TO LAUNCESTON IN 1836 WITH DR PUGH.

To be given by Dr John Paull

University Associate, School of Humanities, University of Tasmania.

Sunday 16 June 2013

2.00 pm

Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery
Meeting Room, Inveresk. Admission Free.

The talk provides excerpts from Pugh's Diary and his experiences on the four week walk, together with a visual record of the route and the families and homesteads he stayed at, some of which are still owned by those families.
