

WHAT WE DO

The John West Memorial Lecture

Presented in March each year.

The LHS Archaeology Group

- archaeological excavations
- historical and map-based research
- landscape archaeology
- remote sensing techniques

Excursions

Visits to areas of interest are conducted during the year.

History Prizes

- To foster an interest in history amongst students the Society organises an annual Primary School History Prize
- The Senior Secondary Ratcliff History Prize is awarded to one student selected by six senior secondary schools
- The Launceston Historical Society Dr Marita Bardenhagen History Prize is awarded to a first-year history student from the University of Tasmania, Launceston Campus

WE DO NOT undertake family or local history research as we do not have staff or a collection. These organisations may be able to assist:
