

'Our History' stories published in The Sunday Examiner and online

By Launceston Historical Society members

No	Date	Page	Author	Title	Topic
1	3 Dec 2017	20	Angela Green	Hobler's legacy standing	Hobler's Bridge
2	10 Dec 2017	40	Marion Sargent	From Russia with debate	Russian Gun in City Park
3	17 Dec 2017	44	Angela Green	From barracks to banking	Commercial Bank of Tas
4	24 Dec 2017	39	Denis Lake	Tasmania's chair of choice	Peddle chairs
5	31 Dec 2017	20	Angela Green	A visionary entrepreneur	Patrick Tynan
6	7 Jan 2018	18	Marion Sargent	A secret, suburban oasis	Ashfield, St Leonards
7	14 Jan 2018	19	Marion Sargent	City's lasting legal legacy	Launceston Court House
8	21 Jan 2018	17	Kelli Schultz	A birthplace of innovation	Lamont family & Braemar
9	28 Jan 2018	16	Marion Sargent	Sowing seeds of tradition	Mellerstane / Barrington
10	4 Feb 2018	20	Marion Sargent	Baths made a big splash	Victoria Baths
11	11 Feb 2018	20	Jenny Gill	Window on a sacred past	Rare window at St John's
12	18 Feb 2018	20	Marion Sargent	Tas caught cycling craze	History of cycling
13	25 Feb 2018	20	Kelli Schultz	The soul of Abbott Street	Chelsea Grove
14	4 Mar 2018	20	Marion Sargent	A festive Furneaux cruise	Cruise of the Colliboi
15	11 Mar 2018	20	John Dent	The very best of brickish	Paterson Barracks
16	18 Mar 2018	20	Marion Sargent	The royal crowning glory	King Edward VII statue
17	25 Mar 2018	20	Jenny Gill	Man of industry and faith	Cameron window, St John's
18	1 Apr 2018	38	Marion Sargent	A contagious refinement	Carr Villa estate
19	8 Apr 2018	18	Marion Sargent	A clean and modern burial	Carr Villa Cemetery
20	15 Apr 2018	16	Marion Sargent	Kains launches into retail	Kains Store hulk
21	22 Apr 2018	16	Marion Sargent	Tasmania again a prison	Italian Prisoners of War
22	29 Apr 2018	18	Marion Sargent	The evolution of the local	Salmon & Ball; River View
23	6 May 2018	17	Jenny Gill	A sacred supper of sorrow	St John's reredos mosaic
24	13 May 2018	19	Kelli Schultz	Spiritual heart now quiet	Launceston Synagogue
25	20 May 2018	17	Marion Sargent	A forgotten resting place	Jewish Cemetery
26	27 May 2018	15	Jenny Gill	Little shop of pure delight	Old Umbrella Shop
27	3 June 2018	12	Jenny Gill	A designer to the divine	Alexander North & churches
28	10 Jun 2018	20	Marion Sargent	City's pathway to power	Power Station Path
29	17 Jun 2018	20	Marion Sargent	Lithgow's life was an opus	Alex F Lithgow, musician
30	24 Jun 2018	22	Marion Sargent	History is alive and well	LHS 30 th year
31	1 Jul 2018	20	Jenny Gill	Faithful promise honoured	Matthias Gaunt
32	8 Jul 2018	20	Jenny Gill	Girls in class of their own	C of E Girls Grammar School
33	15 Jul 2018	20	Marion Sargent	Park's mistaken identity	Government Cottage
34	22 Jul 2018	20	Jenny Gill	An ecclesiastical eyesore	North's towers for St John's
35	29 Jul 2018	20	Marion Sargent	Holy row over holy ground	Scotch Cemetery
36	5 Aug 2018	20	Jenny Gill	Well-equipped for worship	St John's original items
37	12 Aug 2018	20	Julian Burgess	Golden age of the Gorge	Gorge Gold Rush
38	19 Aug 2018	20	Marion Sargent	More history lies beneath	Friends' Cemetery
39	26 Aug 2018	22	Rebecca Phillips	World opens up for women	1975 Int. Women's Year
40	2 Sep 2018	16	Jenny Gill	A unique tribute to heroes	Scotch Chapel
41	9 Sep 2018	20	Julian Burgess	The time of his natural life	Moses Phillips, watchmaker
42	16 Sep 2018	38	Jenny Gill	Holy heart of a community	Franklin Village Chapel
43	23 Sep 2018	20	Kelli Schultz	A flood of local industries	Distillery Creek
44	30 Sep 2018	18	Marion Sargent	Garden of living memory	Elizabeth Gardens
45	7 Oct 2018	18	Kelli Schultz	Foundations of knowledge	Mechanics' Institute
46	14 Oct 2018	16	Julian Burgess	Those early golden years	Examiner's 50 th jubilee
47	21 Oct 2018	20	Julian Burgess	Family sailed into history	TC Archer & sailing
48	28 Oct 2018	20	Jenny Gill	A snapshot of the sacred	St John's before 1935
49	4 Nov 2018	42	Susan Moore	Park's mystery bears fruit	Napoleon pear tree
50	11 Nov 2018	17	Jenny Gill	Chapel's unique memorial	Grammar Memorial Chapel

51	18 Nov 2018	20	Jenny Gill	Place of love and devotion	St Matthias Church 175 yrs
52	25 Nov 2018	17	Kelli Schultz	Vital stitch in city's fabric	St Ailbe's Hall
53	2 Dec 2018	17	Jill Cassidy	An ebb and flow of history	History of Deviot
54	9 Dec 2018	20	Jenny Gill	Piecing together the past	Mosaic tiles
55	16 Dec 2018	20	Catherine Pearce	City's own doyens of style	McKinlay's
56	23 Dec 2018	18	Marion Sargent	Regal centre of attention	Prince's Square
57	30 Dec 2018	16	Jenny Gill	St John's east end view	View from St John's Church
58	6 Jan 2019	18	Julian Burgess	Foundations of Eskleigh	Scone, Perth
59	13 Jan 2019	20	Hugh Rickerby (History Prize)	Absolute corker of a tale	Cork tree at Sacred Heart
60	20 Jan 2019	20	Kelli Schultz	City had a heart of stone	Cataract Quarry
61	27 Jan 2019	20	Dianne Cassidy	Resting place for pioneers	Cypress Street Cemetery
62	3 Feb 2019	16	Jenny Gill	Suburb's saintly mystery	St Peter's Church
63	10 Feb 2019	12	Marion Sargent	A commercial chemistry	Hatton & Laws Pharmacy
64	17 Feb 2019	14	Marion Sargent	Saintly space resurrected	St Paul's Church
65	24 Feb 2019	13	Gus Green	Bridge spans the centuries	South Esk Bridge
66	3 Mar 2019	17	Terry Neal	Park's horticultural home	Gardener's Lodge, City Park
67	10 Mar 2019	14	Marion Sargent	Colony freed from cruelty	Cessation of Transportation
68	17 Mar 2019	12	Gus and Marion	Investing in a city's future	Bank of Australasia
69	24 Mar 2019	15	Kelli Schultz	Baths project a marathon	Windmill Hill pool
70	31 Mar 2019	34	Prue McCausland	Luttrell a real exhibitionist	Alfred Luttrell, architect
71	7 Apr 2019	34	Marion Sargent	Flood of community spirit	1929 flood relief efforts
72	14 Apr 2019	34	Julian Burgess	Designs on value and style	William Coogan furniture
73	21 Apr 2019	32	Jill Cassidy	Past worth talking about	Oral History Tasmania
74	28 Apr 2019	34	Marion Sargent	Factories on the front line	WW2 home front industries
75	5 May 2019	34	Prue McCausland	Gorgeous escape from city	Denison Gorge
76	12 May 2019	34	Gus Green	City's true price of power	Robert Henry Price
77	19 May 2019	34	Julian Burgess	A tradition of reinvention	Thomas Massey & CH Smith
78	26 May 2019	36	Prue McCausland	The temple of temperance	Launceston's Coffee Palaces
79	2 Jun 2019	34	Jenny Gill	Little part of city heritage	Robert De Little
80	9 Jun 2019	32	Julian Burgess	Revelling in state of peace	WWI peace celebrations
81	16 Jun 2019	32	Jenny Gill	Building a colony's legacy	John Lee Archer, architect
82	23 Jun 2019	34	Marion Sargent	A right royal connection	King's Bridge
83	30 Jun 2019	34	Catherine Pearce	Multipurpose monument	Children's Jubilee Fountain
84	7 Jul 2019	32	Prue McCausland	A city's haunting heritage	Ghost signs
85	14 Jul 2019	34	Marion Sargent	Our right royal celebration	Royal visit 1927
86	21 Jul 2019	32	Marion Sargent	Gorge's recreational edge	Cliff Grounds tea rooms
87	28 Jul 2019	34	Julian Burgess	A scholar's academic idyll	Scotch College move in 1917
88	4 Aug 2019	34	Dianne Cassidy	City's lawless slum of sin	Alsatia
89	11 Aug 2019	34	Catherine Pearce	Justice Van Diemen style	Launceston hangings
90	18 Aug 2019	34	Marion Sargent	A wilderness paradise lost	Woodpecker: Cataract Gorge
91	25 Aug 2019	36	Marion Sargent	A growing sense of style	Dutch garden, City Park
92	1 Sep 2019	34	Jenny Gill & Marion Sargent	Colony's ladies of letters	Mrs Allison's schools
93	8 Sep 2019	34	Julian Burgess	Tassie's textile champion	David Bruce, draper
94	15 Sep 2019	34	Julian Burgess	New tyre venture falls flat	Rapson Tyre Co.
95	22 Sep 2019	34	Julian Burgess	Pioneer's drive to succeed	Fred Paine, carriage builder
96	29 Sep 2019	34	Julian Burgess	A fusion of science and art	QVMAG history
97	6 Oct 2019	30	Mike McCausland	Press freedoms under fire	Freedom of the press in VDL
98	13 Oct 2019	30	Mike McCausland	Satire a weapon of choice	The Cornwall Chronicle
99	20 Oct 2019	32	Mike McCausland	Colony's moderating voice	The Launceston Examiner
100	27 Oct 2019	34	Prue McCausland	Providing a fuller picture	The Weekly Courier
101	3 Nov 2019	34	Marion Sargent	A delight for music lovers	Cataract Gorge bandstands
102	10 Nov 2019	34	Jenny Gill	Life and times of Batten St	Batten Street, Launceston

103	17 Nov 2019	34	Tahlia Muller (History Prize)	Hydro power to the people	Duck Reach Power Station
104	24 Nov 2019	32	Geoff McLean	Icon's cultural revolution	Princess Theatre
105	1 Dec 2019	34	Nigel Burch	Tasmania's favourite son	Sir Richard Dry
106	8 Dec 2019	36	Julian Burgess	Store a touch of Tiffany's	F. & W. Stewart, jewellers
107	15 Dec 2019	36	Nigel Burch	Getting the state on track	Railway history of Tas
108	22 Dec 2019	26	Marion Sargent	A Christmas retail rescue	Christmas 1919
109	29 Dec 2019	22	Nigel Burch	The birth of Beaconsfield	How Beaconsfield began
110	5 Jan 2020	22	Nigel Burch	A town of hopes long lost	Lisle, the town that vanished
111	12 Jan 2020	24	Nigel Burch	Wonder of the wilderness	Pipers River tramway
112	19 Jan 2020	22	Nigel Burch	Tasmania's own iron age	West Tamar iron industry
113	26 Jan 2020	32	Nigel Burch	State in league of its own	Anti-Transportation League
114	2 Feb 2020	24	Prue McCausland	A very Dickensian deceit	Pirated Pickwick Papers
115	9 Feb 2020	24	Nigel Burch	Asbestos industry of WWI	Asbestos industry
116	16 Feb 2020	22	Nigel Burch	Rail arrives with a boom	North-East railway
117	23 Feb 2020	22	Julian Burgess	Tassie aviation takes off	Miss Flinders
118	1 Mar 2020	20	Nigel Burch	Nixon's grand bucolic plan	Christ's College
119	8 Mar 2020	22	Nigel Burch	Exeter's equine emperor	William J Southerwood
120	15 Mar 2020	19	Nigel Burch	Paterson our most reluctant governor	The Rum Rebellion and York Town
121	22 Mar 2020	39	Marion Sargent	Tyranny of distance no protection	Influenza epidemic 1919
122	29 Mar 2020	15	Jenny Gill	Chronicler followed the family passion for Tasmania's past	Mary Whitfeld, historian
123	5 Apr 2020	15	Nigel Burch	Dilston's ebb and flow – riverside idyll a developer's delight	History of Dilston
124	12 Apr 2020	17	Marion Sargent	Easter celebrations lifted state's spirits after darkest of times	Easter holidays in 1920
125	19 Apr 2020	17	Nigel Burch	Watts was a woman of the wilderness	Our Pioneer women: Eliza Jane Watts
126	26 Apr 2020	37	Julian Burgess	Soft drink king shared sweet success	Harry Abbott Scout Centre
127	3 May 2020	45	Nigel Burch	Twin coastal towns started out with a very clean slate	Lulworth – Tam O'Shanter
128	10 May 2020	17	Nigel Burch	Uniting function and beauty forged a new industrial aesthetic	Longford Railway Bridge
129	17 May 2020	17	Jenny Gill	The Holy Trinity was the answer to many parishioners' prayers	Old Holy Trinity Church
130	24 May 2020	45	Marion Sargent	Family home swamped by memories	Mayhead family & "Athelney"
131	31 May 2020	17	Marion Sargent	Business kept city's finger on the pulse	AW Mayhead, bookseller & stationer
132	7 Jun 2020	17	Catherine Pearce	Launceston's insidious foe: typhoid	Typhoid in Launceston
133	14 Jun 2020	40	Nigel Burch	Hagley: that little farm school that could	Hagley Farm School
134	21 Jun 2020	36	Julian Burgess	Art deco architecture at its finest	Holyman House
135	28 Jun 2020	37	Nigel Burch	Our Launceston man in London	Our man in London: Tasmanian Agent-Generals
136	5 Jul 2020	19	Kelli Schultz	Residents readily paid a pretty penny for literary pursuits	Subscription libraries

137	12 Jul 2020	17	Marion Sargent	Echoes of the future – dealing with another deadly outbreak	Smallpox in Launceston
138	19 Jul 2020	21	Inner Wheel Club	Club's foundation was friendship and community service	History of the Inner Wheel Club of Launceston
139	26 Jul 2020	17	Nigel Burch	Pioneer set standard at Beaconsfield	Joseph Davies & the Beaconsfield Mine
140	2 Aug 2020	17	Nigel Burch	Road to enlightenment led to Rowella	Frank Lee Woodward
141	9 Aug 2020	21	Nigel Burch	Sea Captain's dream of scholastic success failed to stay afloat	Horton College, Ross
142	16 Aug 2020	17	Nigel Burch	Launceston students had their very own fantastic Miss Fox	Mary Fox & MLC
143	23 Aug 2020	23	Marion Sargent	An art deco delight was a luxurious hub of modern cinema	Plaza Theatre
144	30 Aug 2020	23	Nigel Burch	Town was victim of genuine gold digger	Mark Lewis Henn
145	6 Sep 2020	17	Catherine Pearce	People power made cradle of wilderness true global treasure	Cradle Mt Reserve meeting
146	13 Sep 2020	21	Rod Oliver	Behind the lens ... the adventures of a city's intrepid shutterbugs	Northern Tasmanian Camera Club
147	20 Sep 2020	41	Nigel Burch	Colourful company painted the state red ... yellow ... green	Turpentine Paints & Alonza Flounders
148	27 Sep 2020	42	Nigel Burch	Green a man of unparalleled principles	Richard Green
149	4 Oct 2020	17	Nigel Burch	Lilydale's rise a study in persistence and community spirit	The lure of Lilydale
150	11 Oct 2020	17	Nigel Burch	Indomitable Mary Cox took the reins	Mary Ann Cox
151	18 Oct 2020	21	Rod Oliver	Club still committed to the community	Rotary Club of Launceston
152	25 Oct 2020	21	Marion Sargent	Helen Reddy's Tasmanian connections	Max and Helen Reddy
153	1 Nov 2020	51	Nigel Burch	Furore at Frankford divided the town	Feud at Frankford
154	8 Nov 2020	21	Nigel Burch	Fraud and theft at heart of a sacred scandal in gold town	Brawl at Beaconsfield
155	15 Nov 2020	29	Jenny Gill	Dry answered the Tasmanian calling	Rev. William Dry
156	22 Oct 2020	21	Nigel Burch	Gems bedazzled London's legal eagles	Killiecrankie's day in court
157	29 Nov 2020	27	Kelli Schultz	Union at forefront in fight for political rights of women	WCTU & women's suffrage
158	6 Dec 2020	21	Nigel Burch	Australia's aviation future made a real splash in Tasmania	Fairey seaplanes at Beauty Point
159	13 Dec 2020	21	Dianne Cassidy	Sex scandal, claims of coercion sullied the city's reputation	An infamous business
160	20 Dec 2020	49	Nigel Burch	Gatty Campbell Town's first high-flyer	Harold Gatty, aviator
161	27 Dec 2020	35	Nigel Burch	Disaster turned the tide on big East Coast mining dreams	Seymour Coal Co.
162	3 Jan 2021	37	Dianne Cassidy	Preacher's protest wins a moral victory	Henry Varley, evangelist

163	10 Jan 2021	18	Nigel Burch	State in frenzy with a rush of gold fever	Gold Reward Commission
164	17 Jan 2021	17	Nigel Burch	Hidden hazard of Hebe Reef claims its share of catastrophes	Hebe Reef
165	24 Jan 2021	21	Catherine Pearce	Chequered past for the voice of the city	Chequers, Town Crier
166	31 Jan 2021	17	Rod Oliver	Smithies was a Tasmanian trailblazer	Fred Smithies
167	7 Feb 2021	17	Dianne Cassidy	Raising a brood of children common form of exploitation	Baby farm scandal
168	14 Feb 2021	17	Nigel Burch	Dredging up ill-fated history of Tamar's trusty Ponrabbell II	Ponrabbell dredge
169	21 Feb 2021	23	Nigel Burch	Slate caused the rise and fall of Bangor	A saga of slate at Bangor
170	28 Feb 2021	23	Rod Oliver	Swapping prison for photography	William Cawston, photographer
171	7 Mar 2021	21	Kelli Schultz	Haven for state's vulnerable youngsters	Glenara, Northern Tasmanian Home for Boys
172	14 Mar 2021	21	Dianne Cassidy	Was double death a case of lethal love?	Bestwick arsenic poisoning
173	21 Mar 2021	21	Rod Oliver	Train spotting made child's play with help from Rotary club	Trains in City Park
174	28 Mar 2021	21	Nigel Burch	Crookes a politician and a gentleman	The worthy John Crookes
175	4 Apr 2021	21	Nigel Burch	Tamar a likely prospect for Humphrey	AWH Humphrey, 1804
176	11 Apr 2021	21	Julian Burgess	Iconic stack a fitting tribute to a giant of state's wool industry	Leslie William Smith
177	18 Apr 2021	23	Nigel Burch	The rise of the professional politician	Payment of politicians
178	25 Apr 2021	25	Marion Sargent	Community rallied to help create local haven for war heroes	Anzac Memorial Hostel
179	2 May 2021	21	Nigel Burch	Week a long time in Tasmanian politics	Tasmania's first Labour Party
180	9 May 2021	21	Julian Burgess	Wellington Square State School's 120 years of service ends	Wellington Square State School
181	16 May 2021	40	Marion Sargent	How lighting up the Albert Hall energised Launcestonians	Lighting the Albert Hall
182	23 May 2021	21	Nigel Burch	From fraught early forays, benefits of hydro finally flowed	How the Hydro began
183	30 May 2021	19	Nigel Burch	State built on a rock-solid foundation	The quest for lime
184	6 Jun 2021	17	Julian Burgess	How a flying Fysh got iconic kangaroo up off the ground	Hudson Fysh & Qantas
185	13 Jun 2021	21	Prue McCausland	Female citizen scientists blazed a trail	Seaweed collectors of George Town
186	20 Jun 2021	21	Marion Sargent	Healthcare for city's women delivers after a very difficult birth	Beginnings of the QVH
187	27 Jun 2021	17	Nigel Burch	Remembering Longford's lost leader	Premier Albert E Solomon
188	4 Jul 2021	21	Jenny Gill	Homestead enjoyed learned reputation	Sidbury Farm

189	11 Jul 2021	23	Rod Oliver	Life in the slow lane: A caravan adventure to St Helens and back	Voyage in a Caravan
190	18 Jul 2021	21	Nigel Burch	Walter a builder of Beaconsfield's future	George Walter, builder of Beaconsfield
191	25 Jul 2021	23	Julian Burgess	An inaugural trip offered snapshot of Australia's defences	Flight of the Seagull
192	1 Aug 2021	21	Nigel Burch	Tasmanian women tackled opposition to blaze a hockey trail	The ancient art of Hockey
193	8 Aug 2021	21	Nigel Burch	Tasmania takes a rare alloy from trash to global treasure	Osmiridium – the gold they threw away
194	15 Aug 2021	21	Paul Richards	Delicate balance is a vital element of Tasmanians' health	Iodine deficiency in Tasmania
195	22 Aug 2021	44	Nigel Burch	Young soprano was the lark of Lebrina	Lucy Atkins – the Lebrina Lark
196	29 Aug 2021	23	Julian Burgess	Solutions for familiar foe which plagued a colony's 'highway'	Tamar silt
197	5 Sep 2021	19	Nigel Burch	O'Keefe a politician with a heart of gold	The unexpected demise of Michael O'Keefe
198	12 Sep 2021	21	Nigel Burch	Cooperative brewed successful union	The Union Brewery in York Street, Launceston
199	19 Sep 2021	27	Nigel Burch	Premier was his own political nemesis	Sir Walter Lee
200	26 Sep 2021	33	Marion Sargent	Public baths flooded with problems from the very beginning	Launceston Corporation Baths
201	3 Oct 2021	27	Mike McCausland	Last word in modern service had a solid literary foundation	Changing of the guard: From the Mechanics to the NRL
202	10 Oct 2021	43	Mike McCausland	Innovation hallmark of leadership in Phil Leonard's library	Early days of the Northern Regional Library & Phil Leonard
203	17 Oct 2021	29	Mike McCausland	How library books travelled to remote readers in the north	The NRL into the 21 st century
204	24 Oct 2021	29	Nigel Burch	Passionate fight for women's suffrage	Tasmanian women's suffrage
205	31 Oct 2021	31	Nigel Burch	A century on and the mystery of Arthur Payne continues	The mystery of Golden Valley
206	7 Nov 2021	39	Julian Burgess	How West influenced the hearts, minds and souls of a city	Milton Hall & Rev. John West
207	14 Nov 2021		Nigel Burch	Bruno was the lord of Tamar Island for 20 years – no bull	Bruno – The Lord of Tamar Island
208	21 Nov 2021	29	Nigel Burch	New hospital offered Launceston children state-of-the-art care	Launceston Children's Hospital
209	28 Nov 2021	27	Prue McCausland	An extraordinary exhibition really put Tasmania on show	Opening of the Tasmanian Exhibition 1891-92
210	5 Dec 2021	33	Prue McCausland	Roll up, roll up to celebrate Tasmania's glory and grandeur	Visiting the Tasmanian Exhibition
211	12 Dec 2021	35	Rod Oliver	Australian post was up, up and away with Kingsford Smith	First airmail service
212	19 Dec 2021	39	Nigel Burch	Residents not keen to go with North Esk flow at St Leonards	Clark's Ford, St Leonards
213	2 Jan 2022	39	Nigel Burch	Political potential tragically unrealised	Margaret McIntyre
214	9 Jan 2022	27	Nigel Burch	Tasmanian officer Churchill's choice	Churchill's choice: Tom Davies DSO MC

215	16 Jan 2022	29	Nigel Burch	New mill pumped lifeblood to residents after a transplant	Old Cataract Mill
216	23 Jan 2022	27	Nigel Burch	Visitors got in touch with inner Dolittle at popular animal park	Punchbowl Zoo
217	30 Jan 2022	29	Marion Sargent	Tip blaze sparked an inferno that turned livelihoods to ashes	Newstead Fire 1961
218	6 Feb 2022	33	Nigel Burch	Corra Linn scene of colonial crime to swindle ex-soldier	A crime at Corra Linn
219	13 Feb 2022	31	Rod Oliver	Launceston surgeon a cut above in service to the community	Sir John Ramsay: Not just a surgeon
220	20 Feb 2022	31	Nigel Burch	Music store struck the right chord in radio revolution	Radio 7LA
221	27 Feb 2022	33	Julian Burgess	Ex-convict turns a seven-year sentence into seaport success	Jonathan Griffiths
222	6 Mar 2022	43	Nigel Burch	Family harmony secret to talented trio	The Singing Kettles: To the memory of Max
223	13 Mar 2022	43	Richard Mack	Healing hands touched so many lives	Margaret Mack: Intrepid physio
224	20 Mar 2022	31	Members of Tatlers	In their own words – a safe creative space for female authors	Tatlers Women Writers of Northern Tasmania 60 year anniversary
225	27 Mar 2022	31	Rod Oliver	Tasmania's unsung hero of aviation was one out of the box	David Warren and the black box
226	3 Apr 2022	31	Nigel Burch	Healthy respect for state's law and order	William Murnane, Policeman and Sanitary Inspector
227	10 Apr 2022	29	Nigel Burch	Early find ignited a burning desire for fossil fuel exploration	The flammable rocks of Latrobe
228	17 Apr 2022	31	Julian Burgess	A century on crash is still Tamar's worst marine accident	Togo and Alice collision
229	24 Apr 2022	29	Nigel Burch	Local hero honoured three times over for his amazing bravery	Our forgotten hero: Leslie Dadson MC and Two Bars
230	1 May 2022	31	Nigel Burch	A high-flying notion helped put our city on the aviation map	How Launceston Airport began
231	8 May 2022	27	Nigel Burch	A dam fine project helped progress flow for Tasmania's north	Our Trevallyn Dam
232	15 May 2022	29	Nigel Burch	No one knows why the Hobart Express went off the rails	The crash of the Hobart Express at Campania
233	22 May 2022	31	Nigel Burch	TNT9 helped north of state find its voice... and it was loud	Launceston television turns 60
234	29 May 2022	33	Nigel Burch	Many tested their mettle prospecting for Tasmania's tin	Royal George Tin Mine
235	5 Jun 2022	31	Marion Sargent	Prestigious address a boulevard of great Australian dream	College Street, Newstead
236	12 Jun 2022	31	Marion Sargent	Countless newborns given warm welcome by dedicated nurse	St Ives Maternity Hospital
237	19 Jun 2022	29	Mike McCausland	A friendly labour of literary love that spans three decades	Friends for 30 years (FoLL)
238	26 Jun 2022	47	Julian Burgess	The auxiliary steam plant to the rescue during dry times	Auxiliary Steam Plant
239	3 Jul 2022	29	Nigel Burch	Uncovering the rich history of Tasmania's forgotten goldfield	Industry Road gold
240	10 Jul 2022	31	Nigel Burch	George Jackson: tireless visionary of motoring world	Jackson's Garage

241	17 Jul 2022	31	Nigel Burch	Tamar Cut was a bold bid to keep city's river running free	Tamar Cut
242	24 Jul 2022	29	Marion Sargent	Colonial arrival puts down roots to run riot in landscape	Rice grass in the Tamar
243	31 Jul 2022	29	Julian Burgess	Thrilling history of the dark days in colonial Tasmania	The story of the notorious convict Mark Jeffrey
244	7 Aug 2022	31	Nigel Burch	'Deviot angel' brings hope to desperate in war-ravaged Europe	The Deviot Angel: Gwen Hesketh
245	14 Aug 2022	29	Nigel Burch	Ring road missing link in Pak-Poy's engineering legacy	Launceston's ring road
246	21 Aug 2022	31	Nigel Burch	Frank Kerrison: Tasmanian soldier's date with destiny	Fate and Frank Kerrison
247	28 Aug 2022	33	Nigel Burch	Low Head foghorn installed after long and loud campaign	Low Head foghorn
248	4 Sep 2022	29	Julian Burgess	Invalid Depot a home for society's less fortunate	Launceston Invalid Depot
249	11 Sep 2022	29	Nigel Burch	Early Tasmanian heroes show the way	WM Hardy: Surveyor
250	18 Sep 2022	27	Nigel Burch	Shipworm brings ill-fated Scamander bridge to its knees	The collapse of the Scamander Bridge
251	25 Sep 2022	31	Dianne Cassidy	When this you see, remember me: a convict's love record	William Vale's love token
252	2 Oct 2022	43	Nigel Burch	Cornwall coal mine: delivering since 1886 and still operating	Cornwall coal
253	9 Oct 2022	27	Julian Burgess	When Waddamana power came to aid of burgeoning city	When Waddamana power came to town
254	16 Oct 2022	27	Nigel Burch	The Launceston Primitives spreading the revivalist word	The Launceston Primitives
255	23 Oct 2022	29	Julian Burgess	Cataract Hill has first electric home	Launceston's first electric house
256	30 Oct 2022	31	Peter Richardson	The surprising legacy of a second-rate 19 th -century postmaster	St John Browne & the Penny Cyclopaedia
257	6 Nov 2022	31	Nigel Burch	Launcestonians 'with time to talk' take to the telephone	Launceston takes to the Telephone
258	13 Nov 2022	27	Julian Burgess	Tracing the history of John Ford's hovercraft	John Ford's hovercraft
259	20 Nov 2022	29	Nigel Burch	Celebrating our first Miss Australia: Phyllis Von Alwyn	Our many Miss Australias
260	27 Nov 2022	33	Marion Sargent	Bandstands reveal city's passion for musical diversions	City Park bandstands
261	4 Dec 2022	31	Nigel Burch	Bradman, Grace, history made in 200 years at NTCA oval	Launceston Cricket Ground
262	11 Dec 2022	31	Julian Burgess	The rise and fall of textile powerhouse Kelsall and Kemp	Kelsall & Kemp
263	18 Dec 2022	33	Nigel Burch	Spanning the mighty Tamar no easy task for bridge team	Batman Bridge: Spanning the mighty Tamar
264	1 Jan 2023	25	Nigel Burch	SS Coogee's tale of woe: from Brit witch to divers' paradise	Our SS Coogee
265	8 Jan 2023	29	Nigel Burch	The unlucky life of Tasmanian mining pioneer Alick Loane	The unlucky life of Alick Loane
266	15 Jan 2023	27	Guy Hensley	State's women spread their wings to help war effort at home	Women's Air Training Corp in Launceston

267	22 Jan 2023	31	Nigel Burch	Multiple tributes to one of state's great mineral trailblazers	Frank Long
268	29 Jan 2023	29	Nigel Burch	How state became a world leader in poppy production	Tasmanian poppy industry
269	5 Feb 2023	31	Julian Burgess	Patons and Baldwins' mills a boon for city's 1923 wool sales	New mills benefit Launceston's 1923 wool sales
270	12 Feb 2023	29	Nigel Burch	Marching girls the epitome of precision, pomp and pageantry	Our marching girls
271	19 Feb 2023	31	Nigel Burch	The day Launceston booed a queasy Nellie Melba	The day we booed Nellie Melba
272	26 Feb 2023	31	Nigel Burch	Peters Ice Cream factory expansion a boon for our city	The old Peters' Ice Cream Factory
273	5 Mar 2023	29	Geoffrey Harris	Motorsport right at home among the north's homesteads	Longford Motorama
274	12 Mar 2023	31	Nigel Burch	Fearless aeronaut delivers spectacle of state's first flight	First flight in City Park
275	19 Mar 2023	31	Julian Burgess	Scottish spinners get the ball rolling in new Launceston mill	Patons & Baldwins: Skilled mill workers arrive from the UK
276	26 Mar 2023	27	Nigel Burch	Super-sized Santa had a special place in young hearts	Father Christmas in Launceston
277	2 Apr 2023	47	Dianne Cassidy	Re-emergence of colourful convict after 137 years	The "re-emergence" of John McStay after 137 years
278	9 Apr 2023	35	Nigel Burch	The March King's 'magnificent' visit	John Phillip De Sousa: The March King visits
279	16 Apr 2023	29	Nigel Burch	The debacle of the Dalmayne Colliery	The debacle of the Dalmayne Colliery
280	23 Apr 2023	29	Marion Sargent	The Riva monument: A memorial to an only beloved son	The Riva monument: Jack Eugene Riva
281	30 Apr 2023	29	Nigel Burch	Beaconsfield's Black Bob: a story of heroism, heartbreak	The heroism and heartbreak of Beaconsfield's Black Bob
282	7 May 2023	31	Nigel Burch	Shegog found success on national stage	Kevin Shegog
283	14 May 2023	27	Nigel Burch (100)	Bromby didn't stand a chance against a master of rhetoric	The Bromby-Coote Battle of 1879
284	21 May 2023	27	Marion Sargent	Photographer Grattan made his mark in Launceston	Henry W Grattan, photographer
285	28 May 2023	19	Nigel Burch	Newspaper rivalry kickstarts Tassie's Tour de France	The Examiner Tour of the North
286	4 Jun 2023	33	Nigel Burch	The changing face of our oldest surviving hotel	The changing face of the Launceston Hotel
287	11 Jun 2023	23	Nigel Burch	How no-nonsense Annie established hotel, gifted cup	Our "No-Nonsense" Annie Huston
288	18 Jun 2023	25	Julian Burgess	Simply the best: when Tina turned up in Launceston	Ike & Tina Turner
289	25 Jun 2023	37	Nigel Burch	Manufacturing business lasts the test of time	Peter's Foundry
290	2 Jul 2023	25	Nigel Burch	Remembering the belltowers of Launceston	The Brisbane Street firebell tower
291	9 Jul 2023	23	Julian Burgess	Waverley Woollen Mills marks 150 th anniversary	Waverley Woollen Mills 150th
292	16 Jul 2023	23	Marion Sargent	Northern pioneers spearhead rise of women's cricket	Ladies' Crescent Cricket Club
293	23 Jul 2023	23	Nigel Burch	Labor Lance one of Launceston's finest politicians	Lance Barnard was his father's son

294	30 Jul 2023	23	Nigel Burch	This CBD corner was Mrs Crosby's Jubilee Bakery	Mrs Crosby's Jubilee Bakery
295	6 Aug 2023	18	Nigel Burch	Longford power took more than a flick of the switch	The tortuous process of powering Longford
296	13 Aug 2023	28	Prue McCausland	Presumed curable: The sad story of Theodora Weston	Theodora Weston
297	20 Aug 2023	23	Nigel Burch	How soapmaker genius saved local manufacturing	R Miller & Co.
298	27 Aug 2023	23	Julian Burgess	The mysterious memorial to William Collins	The mysterious memorial to William Collins
299	3 Sep 2023	27	Nigel Burch	The road to forming our first ambulance service	The first Launceston ambulances
300	10 Sep 2023	22	Nigel Burch	The century-old story of Barratts Music stores	The story of Barratt's Music
301	17 Sep 2023	23	Nigel Burch	How Barratts founder's son gave his life for Christ	David Barratt: The Devonport Martyr
302	24 Sep 2023	23	Marion Sargent	Spotlight shines on Launceston architect's legacy	Shining a spotlight on J Martyn Haenke's architectural legacy
303	1 Oct 2023	39	Nigel Burch	How two Johns established the Tamar Brewery	Tamar Brewery
304	8 Oct 2023	31	Julian Burgess	The strange story of Launceston's first ever mayor	Launceston's first council and mayor
305	15 Oct 2023	27	Marion Sargent	Lookout a white elephant or best view in the city?	Talbot Road Lookout
306	22 Oct 2023	23	Nigel Burch	The history of Launceston's Tamar St bridge	Tamar Street bridge
307	29 Oct 2023	23	Julian Burgess	Launceston's role in making the first Holden car	Tool Annex & Holden cars
308	5 Nov 2023	23	Julian Burgess	Frederick Street Infant School's history unpacked	Frederick Street Kindergarten
309	12 Nov 2023	23	Nigel Burch	When the famous Lork Kitchener visited Tasmania	Lord Kitchener in Tasmania
310	19 Nov 2023	35	Nigel Burch	When Launceston experimented with steam buses	Clarkson Steam Bus
311	26 Nov 2023	23	Marion Sargent	Mystery remains over man behind Gorge structures	Charles St John David, City Engineer & Surveyor
312	3 Dec 2023	39	Nigel Burch	Launceston's tramway network didn't come easy	Our tramway service
313	10 Dec 2023	27	Nigel Burch	Controversy and name changes at Charles St bridge	Charles St Bridge
314	17 Dec 2023	23	Nigel Burch	How Mowbray racecourse served as a hospital	Mowbray Smallpox Hospital
315	24 Dec 2023	13	Nigel Burch	Bridging the state's North-South divide	Perth Bridge
316	31 Dec 2023	19	Julian Burgess	The founding of the Launceston Bicycle Club	Launceston Bicycle Club
317	7 Jan 2024	23	Nigel Burch	An iso hospital gave Quarantine Road its name	Verulam Isolation Hospital
318	14 Jan 2024	23	Julian Burgess	130 years ago, Launceston gave coal gas the flick	Launceston Gas Company
319	21 Jan 2024	23	Marion Sargent	Swamped by the mud: the Tamar's never-ending saga	Tamar Estuary mud
320	28 Jan 2024	23	Nigel Burch	Mud flats 'natural state' of Tamar's upper reaches	More on mud
321	4 Feb 2024	18	Julian Burgess	Launceston racquet 'first choice'	Alexander Patent Racket Company Factory

322	11 Feb 2024	23	Julian Burgess	When Launceston became Tassie's Northern Capital	Governor Arthur's visit to Launceston in 1824
323	18 Feb 2024	23	Julian Burgess	John Fawkner and Launceston's Cornwall Hotel	John Fawkner & the Cornwall Hotel
324	25 Feb 2024	25	Marion Sargent	Seasons in sun: fond memories of Royal Park beach	Royal Park Beach
325	3 Mar 2024	23	Kelli Schultz	Ruins remain: Perth's connection to historic silos	Scone Mills
326	10 Mar 2024	27	Nigel Burch	The Sunpolishers Club: when radio topped the charts	Sunpolishers Club
327	17 Mar 2024	23	Marion Sargent	The saga of the Post Office tower, clock and chimes	Launceston Post Office tower and clock saga. Part 1
328	24 Mar 2024	23	Marion Sargent	The Launceston Post Office tower saga: Part II	Launceston Post Office tower, clock and chimes saga. Part 2
329	31 Mar 2024	31	Nigel Burch	Why this Charles Street building is mostly missing	Coach & Horses Hotel / National Hotel
330	7 Apr 2024	27	Nigel Burch	Peaceful locale belies mill's turbulent past	Supply River Mill
331	14 Apr 2024	27	Marion Sargent	Remembering the Norwood Avenue Tea House	Norwood Avenue Tea House
332	21 Apr 2024	23	Julian Burgess	Reverend's run-in with troublesome ship captain	Marco Polo & Rev WH Browne
333	28 Apr 2024	23	Julian Burgess	Sister Charlotte's special place in church history	Charlotte Shoobridge: Tasmania's first Deaconess
334	26 May 2024	18	Julian Burgess	The founder of Harley-Davidson in Launceston	The founder of Harley-Davidson in Launceston
335	30 Jun 2024	24	Julian Burgess	The 1880s school that helped form Scotch Oakburn	Methodist Ladies College
336	28 Jul 2024	23	Marion Sargent	Tassie rowing eight's glorious homecoming	Tasmanian rowing eight homecoming in 1906
337	25 Aug 2024	20	Julian Burgess	Industrial heritage fades as fabric factory torn down	James Nelson: Launceston's disappearing industrial heritage
338	29 Sep 2024	23	Julian Burgess	Before the Spirit ships, Tasmania had the Princess	It's 65 years since "the Pot" sailed in!
339	27 Oct 2024	30	Geoffrey Harris	Tassie's first Lion king paved the way for Fagan	Vic Belcher, the Lion king before Fagan
340	1 Dec 2024	16	Catherine Pearce	Journalist sister of famous ANZAC leaves a legacy	Estelle Campbell: the job she chose
341	28 Dec 2024	6	Prue McCausland	John Glover's gold medal in museum mystery	The theft of the Glover Medal